

M-way slip roads ruling

GOVERNMENT inspector Walter Wood overruled overwhelming public pressure for added slip roads on to the M26 at Chevening. The extra cost of £2.4 million is not justified, he said.

This meant that motorists wanting to travel west towards Maidstone had the choice of the A25 through Bat and Ball and Seal or north via the Swanley interchange.